Biographical Note

Mary Adeline Cutter was born to Frederic and Martina Cutter in Pelham, NH, on November 14, 1877. After receiving her degrees in Economics and History from Stanford University, Cutter returned to the Boston, MA area, where she became one of the first women in the city to volunteer for service as a nurse in France during World War I.

Scope and Content of the Collection

The Mary Cutter Collection contains one folder of letters and other documents related to Cutter, one folder of photographs, and one folder containing a newspaper clipping from late in her life. The bulk of the collection relates to Cutter's time serving in France during World War I.
